

PROCEEDINGS OF THE
INTERNATIONAL WORKSHOP ON

SOCIAL SECURITY REFORM

Roman Kulikowski
Gordon J. MacDonald
Editors

Systems Research Institute
Polish Academy of Sciences

IIASA

Systems Research Institute · Polish Academy of Sciences
International Institute for Applied Systems Analysis

SOCIAL SECURITY REFORM

Proceedings of the International Workshop held in Warsaw on 23-24 September 1997

Roman Kulikowski
Gordon MacDonald

Editors

Warsaw 1998

Publication of this volume was made possible due to financial assistance of:

- International Institute for Applied Systems Analysis
- Polish Committee for Cooperation with IIASA
- State Committee for Scientific Research of the Republic of Poland

© Systems Research Institute
Polish Academy of Sciences
Warsaw, 1998

ISBN 83-85847-14-6

Table of Contents

| | |
|--|----|
| Preface..... | 3 |
| Table of Contents | 5 |
| Welcoming address by Mirosław Mossakowski..... | 7 |
| | |
| Chapter 1 Problems and Experience of the Social Security Reforms | |
| • Gordon J. MacDonald, The many dimensions of social security reform | 11 |
| • Andras Simonovits, Some unsolved problems of the Hungarian pension reform | 15 |
| • Michael Wyzan, Notes on the political economy of social security reform | 21 |
| • Edward Palmer, Overview of the Swedish and Latvian pension reforms | 29 |
| • Mariela Nenova, Experiences of social security reform in Bulgaria | 31 |
| | |
| Chapter 2 A Way to Formalization | |
| • Roman Kulikowski, Individual utilities and the choice of security system | 37 |
| • Landis MacKellar, Investing in emerging markets is no panacea for OECD population aging: results from an exploratory simulation with a neoclassical model | 43 |
| • Lech Kruś, Multicriteria modeling, group and negotiation support in the case of social security reform in Poland* | 57 |
| • Marek Makowski, Model-based problem analysis: methods, pitfalls and tools* | 59 |
| • Włodzimierz Ogryczak, Equity and risk factors in aspiration-based approaches* | 61 |

* Short formal intervention from Panel Discussion.

Social Security Reform: Table of Contents

- Leszek S. Zaremba, *A new model of asset allocation in risky and risk-free assets 63

Chapter 3 The Outline of the Polish Case

- Michał Rutkowski, The Polish pension reform program 67
- Jerzy Z. Holzer and Irena Kotowska, Demographic background for the social security reform 91
- Maria Chańska and Bogdan Wojtyniak, Recent trends in the health status of the Polish population 99
- Jolanta Perek, Household savings behaviour in Poland: results from the exploratory cross-tabulation analysis for 1995 105
- Piotr Krasucki, *How to protect employees with low income against poverty 113
- Jan W. Owsiniński, *Is sidestepping a proper solution to the social security reform problem? (and what should we know in order to answer the question) 115

Chapter 4 Summary Report

- Jan W. Owsiniński and Jolanta Perek, Summary report from the international workshop on social security reform, Warsaw, September 1997 119

ISBN 83-85847-14-6

Systems Research Institute
Polish Academy of Sciences

International Institute for Applied Systems Analysis