

Index of Content

Texts and the Body

Anna NASIŁOWSKA
Introduction . . . . .	6
Zdzisław ŁAPIŃSKI
“My Poems are Psychosomatic”: Motive Impulse in the Poetry of Julian Przybos . . . . .	13
Bożena KARWOWSKA
Female Perspective in Szymborska’s Poetry: An Attempt at a Post-feminist Reflection. . . . .	21
Anna NASIŁOWSKA
Women in the Poetry of Czesław Miłosz . . . . .	33
German RITZ
Gender Studies Today: Building Theory, Traveling Theory . . . . .	51
Wojciech ŚMIEJA
From Ideology of the Body to Ideologized Carnality: Sports and Literature in 1918–1939 (selected examples) . . . . .	57
Mateusz SKUCHA
A Manly Artefact and a Mysterious Poet. Around Queer Theory . . . . .	75
Dariusz ŚNIEŻKO
How Did the Old Polish Body Read? Somatic Experiences of Reading . . . . .	90

Piotr SOBOLCZYK
Miron Białoszewski's hermetic pornographies .....	101
Piotr OCZKO
Why I Do Not Want to Write about Old-Polish Male-bedders: A Contribution to the 'Archeology' of Gay Studies in Poland .....	118
Łukasz PAWŁOWSKI
Purity, Dirt, and the Chaos of Revolution: On the Two Parts of Przedwiośnie .....	135
Jeanette SŁABY
Stereotypes of Maternity in Prose Works of Anna Nasiłowska and Manuela Gretkowska .....	147
Wojciech KUDYBA
The Bareness of a Clergyman: Priestly Poetry as a Minority Discourse?.....	167
Katarzyna NADANA
How to Be a Queen .....	174